To the Incoming Student

To you, the "new girls," we the "old girls" of Sweet Briar College, give in this little volume our welcome to Alma Mater. We are glad, so very glad that you are coming to work and to play with us. We hope that as the days slip by, we will be all friends together, loyal to Sweet Briar and to each other. We hope that you will like us and be happy with us, and we feel sure that if you give us a fair chance, we will be happy together. Sweet Briar is a beautiful, wonderful college and it affords each of us many glorious opportunities. As we have found, or are still finding our places, so you will find yours. We are glad to know you have chosen to spend a year with us, for we want you, we need you, and we are just conceited enough to think that maybe you need us just a wee tiny bit or you wouldn't have decided to come to us. We are friends already—now let us be true friends.

To the old students, we extend the greeting of acquaintanceship. It is a great joy to renew our friendship sealed in Alma Mater's hall. But let us make our friendship this year such a living vital thing that in no way will we lose anything from the true glory of friendship; coöperation with one another in all that is big and fine and noble. We are every one of us happy to welcome the new girls to Sweet Briar. In the happiness of meeting our old friends again, do not let us forget our new ones. We remember just how hopelessly homesick we were that night we rode up in the "jewel-box" from the station and all around us sat merry, chattering girls, and we did not know a single one of them. And oh! how we longed for home where we did have friends! Sweet Briar, we love, but we would not love it if we were not content on its marvelous campus. Let us band together to make every new girl in 1917 "at home" in Sweet Briar. Let us help her to choose the right kind of associates, the right kind of amusements. We realize the different environments and temptations of Sweet Briar, and we know pretty well how to cope with them. Let us put the new girl "right" the first days at Sweet Briar, and then surely our success and hers will be assured and we shall have made definite progress on the road of true friendship.

"How-do-you-do new girls. Welcome to Sweet Briar!"

And now we must warn and advise you. Your new life will be full of opportunities and pleasures, successes and failures, difficulties and temptations. Everything depends on a right beginning. You can mean much or less than nothing to Sweet Briar, and on your beginning will rest a great responsibility. Each of us has experienced the peculiar difficulties and we are ready and more than willing to help you. Above all, stick to your ideals and gain bigger ones at college. It is the hot-house of inspirations and aspirations. Choose your associates carefully. Is she a true Christian girl, living up to the standards she has pledged herself to follow? Do not be afraid of us "old girls," we are always ready to help and counsel you. Count us as your first friends.

As a student at Sweet Briar Academy the Handbook extends greetings to you. The Sweet Briar Academy, as a separate institution ended its second year June, 1917. The separation of the Academy and College is such a recent event that, except for the regulations concerning "lights," visitors, and chaperonage rules, the interests and purposes are nearly identical. Elsewhere in this little book you may read of the Wizzards, the Academy chapter of "Paint and Patches"; of the Academy basketball team, of the Academy Student Government and share in Association work. You are as much a part of the Young Women's Christian Association as any College upper classman, provided you are interested enough to join and work for it.

PRACTICAL WORKINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

What Each Committee is Doing

THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

This committee has in charge two of the most vital features of our local Association work—the Sunday school and the meetings and classes for the waitresses of the college.

During the past year the work of the Sunday school has branched out until no longer is it simply a place of worship and religious instruction on Sunday afternoon, but a vital center of community interest, whose work goes on every day of the week. Clubs for instruction and entertainment have been organized among the women of the place, the boys and girls and the tiny tots. The little yellow building back of the college is no longer adequate to meet in the slightest degree the needs of the work. A campaign, vigorously launched by the little Sunday school itself has so far succeeded in the initial construction and equipment of a new building, just back of the tea-house, christened “The Neighborhood House.”

Devotional meetings are held on Sunday evenings in the Chapel for the waitresses. Although these services are primarily song and prayer services, Scriptural passages are discussed and a systematic study of the Bible is pursued. During the week, academic classes in English, Rhetoric, Mathematics, History and Hygiene are conducted by students. A prolonged and rosy dream of our Association which may find realization in the coming year is the organization among the waitresses of their own Young Women's Christian Association.

There is loads of room in the Social Service Committee for your actual help and untiring coöperation. It is an interesting, vital work. We know you will like it.

THE EXTENSION COMMITTEE

The Extension Committee has charge of the Indian Mission and the poor people on the estate. About three miles from Sweet Briar in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, there live several hundred people of mixed Indian, White, and Negro blood. They have had few advantages, for the prejudice of the white people, and their dislike of the Negroes have held them back. They have inherited physical weakness and the unprogressiveness which go hand in hand with physical degeneration.

The county has supplied the children of the neighborhood with one teacher for six months out of the year. The Episcopal church and the Sweet Briar Association support the worker for the other six months of the year. She teaches school in a two-room cabin with an average attendance of forty-two pupils. The girls on the committee walk or ride over to the Mission once a week to teach the girls sewing and the boys basket-weaving. The small children are taught to outline pictures with gay worsteds and to make scrap books. The committee is anxious to institute manual training and domestic science in the school that the boys and girls may make their homes more comfortable, sanitary and healthful and may gain a means of livelihood. At Christmas time the committee has a tree for the children in the little Mission church or at Sweet Briar.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dew, the advisory member of the committee, the poor people on the campus are supplied with food and clothing and are occasionally visited.

If you can teach domestic science, know some of the tricks of kindergartening or are interested in the welfare of God's poor, there is a place on this committee open to you.

THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE

This committee has charge of the voluntary study classes in Bible and Missions. These classes meet once a week for an hour and follow the course of study laid out by the National Board for the Voluntary Bible and Mission study classes. Upper classmen lead the classes in the Academy, the Freshmen and

Extensive plans have been worked out by this committee for the work of 1917 and 1918. Since we have no Sunday school and Bible study is not a requirement of the curriculum, every girl is expected to join a Bible study class. Bible study will continue during the entire first semester. Mission study and Eight Weeks Club training classes will occupy the same period of recitation during the second term. Unless we interest ourselves in such world reaching subjects as Bible and Mission study, we are apt to forget that Sweet Briar is just a mere bit of Virginia from which ought to emanate rays of Christian light to the whole world.

THE RELIGIOUS MEETINGS COMMITTEE

This committee arranges for the regular Sunday night meetings of the Association, and appoints leaders, who are sometimes students, sometimes members of the faculty, and often visitors from other divisions of the Association. The vesper services every night during Lent and whatever mid-week prayer services are held, are under the supervision of this committee.

THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The aim of this committee is to gain new members for the Association and to try in every way to vitalize the connection of each member with the Association.

The members of the committee write a letter of welcome to each incoming Sweet Briar student, send her the Student's Handbook, meet her when she arrives in the fall and try to make her first impression of college a pleasant one. The White Ribbon Girl is your friend every time. Do not hesitate to ask her anything about which you wish to know.

Early in the fall, the committee makes a systematic canvas of all the students and faculty, for the purpose of interesting them in the work the Young Women's Christian Association is doing, and inviting them to support that work by joining the Association. A card catalogue of Association members, recording their activity in Association work, is kept by the Membership Committee.

Get your name on the card as an active member!

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee tries to unite all the students in a very real fellowship, to be of service to the Association and to the college. It considers the good times for the individual, and the best life for the highest development of those in the student community.

This committee has charge of the reception given by the Association to the new students at the opening of the college year. It manages the Y. W. C. A. bazaar and the annual musical comedy or light opera. It also assists the Membership Committee in meeting the new girls and in bringing them into the atmosphere of the Association. The entertainment of all Association guests is provided for by the Social Committee.

If you like to meet new people and have the gift of showing others a good time, volunteer for active service on the Social Committee.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

It is this Committee which keeps our Association in touch with the Association work in other fields. It helps other colleges and city Associations to solve their problems by showing them just how we have worked out the same problem. It teaches us the method by which following the tried example of others we may succeed.

It is also the purpose of this committee to nominate and enroll students for conventions and summer conference delegations, to procure and distribute information concerning these conferences, and to arouse interest and make all necessary arrangements for the delegates.

The second-hand book store and the Association library are operated under the direction of this Committee.

The posters for the Sunday evening meetings and all special meetings of the Association are put up by the poster sub-committee of Publicity.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee is responsible for a judicious disbursement of the funds of the Association. At the beginning of each Association year, a budget is made out, in which the receipts and expenditures are estimated, and it is the aim of the Committee to uphold the budget during the remainder of the year.

“Systematic Giving” an envelope system by which each girl is enabled to contribute as she feels able to the financial support of the Association, has been recently placed under the Finance Chairman. A systematic gift from the month’s allowance, as the student’s personal sacrifice is customary.

Ways and Means by which an extra dollar may be raised for the Association is also listed under Finance. This Committee has charge of the sale of chocolate and oranges in the dormitories and “hot dogs” or light refreshments in Domestic Science laboratory on Monday of each week.

The funds of the Finance department are divided between running expenses, college charities and Home and Foreign Missions.

Are you a mathematics shark? Do you like to buy and sell? There’s a place for the business girl on the Finance Committee.

THE SUMMER CONFERENCE AT BLUE RIDGE, N. C.

Blue Ridge in the heart of those glorious North Carolina mountains, is an inspiration and a glorious opportunity in itself. But Blue Ridge with a Young Women's Christian Association conference is the most wonderful experience in the life of any girl who is privileged to be one of the delegates in attendance. In the midst of nature, nature and God come very close to the hearts of those earnest girls and leaders, and the mountain top at Blue Ridge comes to mean to them something so beautiful, so sacred, that it is almost a shrine in their hearts.

But it isn't a "goody-goody" place. Oh, dear me, no! All morning we go to Bible and Mission study classes, technical councils and committee meetings. Long hikes, tennis, basket-ball, baseball, track and swimming under the supervision of the Recreation Committee, take up our afternoons. After dinner, we gather on the steps of Robert E. Lee hall, sing our college songs, and wave our banners. At eight o'clock, we have general assembly in the auditorium and some great religious speaker addresses us in the most interesting, practical way on those questions which lie deepest and are most vital in our Christian life.

After you have been to Blue Ridge, you are proud you are a Christian, just as proud as that you are an American. Of course you always were a Christian, but in all probability a rather lukewarm one, who, if she didn't hide her Christianity in her inside pocket and almost forgot where she had put it when Sunday morning came around, and it was time to take it out again—at least never wore it on her sleeve so constantly that every act of her day showed that she was trying to live up to the promises of her confirmation to follow in her own life the life of her Master.

After you have been to Blue Ridge, you can never say and listen while any one else says "Pooh Y. W.!" You realize now that you are a member of the greatest army of girls in the world, that you may not be in the trenches on the front line of battle, but you are doing all you can to keep the best fit there and you are proud of your work, and their work, and our Association.

After the months of hard work in college, ten days at Blue Ridge in the early days of June, is a peaceful, happy vacation. As new students about to become members of our Association, we want you to feel that Blue Ridge is as much yours as ours. Identify yourself with some active phase of Association work, then go to Blue Ridge and tell the other Southern College girls just what Sweet Briar is doing. Keep the conference in mind throughout the year. Plan your finances so there will be enough left from the college year for the best finish any year could have, ten days at Blue Ridge!

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Be ACTIVE members! Constitutionally, active membership implies membership in a Protestant Evangelical Church, and the privilege, therefore, of serving as chairman of a committee, or officer in the Association. But here we would urge, by active membership, a real, live interest and concern in the workings and in every least undertaking of the Young Women's Christian Association. Girls, DON'T BE INDIFFERENT! It is more killing to an organization than the hostility itself which comes from an earnest conviction. Don't be a half-way member. Make us tell you all that you want to know, and above all—WANT to know!

The students of the Academy are invited to join with the college students in the work of the Young Woman's Christian Association.

Show your interest by an endeavor to attend every meeting regularly, and BRING A FRIEND. To try to interest others is the surest way to interest oneself.

Join the Bible and Mission Study Classes. If you are more than interested in missions, attend the Student Volunteer meetings.

Consider carefully your pledge to "Systematic Giving," our envelope system. Since there is no collection taken at the Chapel services, this is the one such opportunity that we have in college. We do ourselves injustice to acquire the habit of constantly receiving and spending, and never making the small sacrifice of a regular contribution. Don't give such a habit the chance to grip you! Do not pledge more than you will definitely be responsible for. It would not be being honest with yourself. Be prompt and regular in your monthly payment. Otherwise it is no longer "systematic," and will cause trouble somewhere.

LET US KNOW if you have any books or articles of furniture of which you would like to dispose. The second-hand bookshop will be glad to act as agent for you.

If you have any criticism of the Association, make them TO us and not ABOUT us. They may be a source of real improvement and progress in our work.

Carry the Association spirit of helpfulness and unselfishness with you throughout the week—to your tables, your classes, your roommates, and your play. It is not meant to be kept for Sundays!

THE HONOR SYSTEM

We have been able to maintain a high standard of honor at Sweet Briar, and we look to you to do your part in the future towards keeping this standard. We have an Honor Council composed of one member elected from each class, the President of the Student Government Association and the President of the Young Women's Christian Association. This student committee has the power to investigate and take action in any case which comes under its observations. The final word rests with the faculty, but we are glad to say that it is seldom necessary to resort to this Supreme Court.

This system is not only in use during examination time but every bit of class work during the year is done under the same standard. Much that is winked at and overlooked in a preparatory school is strictly noticed here at Sweet Briar. Please be careful wherever your honor is concerned and there will be no question as to an Honor System. No written pledge is required as in many other schools but the fact of your being a student at Sweet Briar and therefore a lady serves as a pledge that your work is your own.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Foreword

With the opening of a college career, the great problem of control, and self-control in particular, seems uppermost. Aiding in the solution of this problem, with the coöperation of the faculty and the earnest work of former students, "Our Democracy," the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College, has arisen. This Association through the eight years of its existence has stood for the maintenance of our college life.

The success of former years and of the years to come is intimately connected with the life and aim of each student who forms a unit of the democracy. Each citizen of the collegiate as well as of the non-collegiate body should realize the importance of her hearty coöperation on the actions of her government by earnest interest and truthful expression of her own opinion. The fresh inspiration of the members of the Association, gathered together, are only greater steps toward the perfection of a system which shall stand for everything. Each individual is needed. Her value to the rest of the college is inestimable, if her idea and aim is always that of what is best for Sweet Briar College.

The observation of the rules and laws of the Association may at first seem irksome, but they become easy if we remember to uphold the highest standard. To help in the upholding of our rule, we have drawn up a constitution. A printed copy of this will be presented to you on your enrollment in the Association, of which you are a member by virtue of being a student at the College. This booklet, as we trust, will become your friend and constant guide, especially during your first weeks at Sweet Briar.

The first thing the "old girls" want to say to the "new girls" is that we are very glad you are coming to Sweet Briar. We feel sure that you will bring lots of life and help to our College, and we know that Sweet Briar has many, many things to give you; not only plenty of good times and abundance of the right sort of work but much deep inspiration. Perhaps now you may feel a little lonely and frightened at the idea of starting your college life and leaving home and friends. Remember' however, that we are awaiting to give you a hearty welcome, and are ready to lend a helping hand whenever you need it. We, of the College Student Government Association, are looking forward with eagerness to the time when we shall meet each other and when together we will work for and love our Alma Mater.

THE RELATION OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT TO COL- LEGE LIFE

ACADEMIC WORK—It is the duty of the Association to uphold the highest standard of honor in all academic work. To encourage interest in this phase of college life, an Honor Council has been formed with representatives from each of the bodies of the Association.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE—Attendance upon Chapel services is compulsory, but 12 "cuts" a semester are allowed for sickness and other causes. The general attitude of the members during Chapel service is under the supervision of the Association.

GENERAL CONDUCT—The college buildings should be reasonably quiet at all times. The buildings should be absolutely quiet during the scheduled "quiet hours."

The Association has also the supervision of the conduct in the Refectory.

OTHER ASSOCIATIONS—A student deficient in academic work or in “bad standing” with the Student Government Association may not hold office in any other Association.

The holding of offices in any of the Associations is regulated by the Point System.

RESOLUTION XIII

Constitution

Resolved, That all the offices held by students be divided into points, a certain number of points to each office.

One student may not hold more than fourteen points at one time.

Members of the Executive Board of Student Government may hold office in ONE other organization only.

RESOLUTION XIV

The Executive Committee shall elect three of its members, one of whom shall be the President of the Student Government Association, to form, with three members of the Executive Committee of the Faculty, the College Council.

The purpose of the Council shall be to act as an intermediary body between the Faculty and the Students. All matters which are to be presented to the Executive Committee of the Faculty by the Students shall be presented through this Council. In cases of honor the Honor Council may be called in consultation. The Council may discuss topics of general college interest and offer recommendations to the Executive Committee of the Faculty or the Student Government Association.

A meeting of the College Council shall be held on the Monday before the first Wednesday of each month at twelve o'clock. Additional meetings may be called by the Faculty chairman of the Council or by the President of the Student Government Association.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Sweet Briar is ideally located for the enjoyment of splendid body-building sports in the open air. Remote enough from the cities to avoid the "effeminate influences" of artificial pleasures from which Cæsar credited the Helvetians with an escape, the school's very environment of soaring hills and level valleys promotes a desire for vigorous exercise and direct contact with the great natural elements.

The aim of organized athletics at our school has always been in harmony with this instinctive response of the entire student body to the call of sky and hill and rolling plains. Athletics is not the all-absorbing bent of a specialized few at Sweet Briar; it is the means of relaxation and refreshment to practically every girl in the school. Competition in athletics is confined to contests between the classes of the College and Academy; this is an important feature, developing the universal spirit of interest and participation so necessary to beneficial exercise without exaggerating the importance of the contests to a nerve-racking strain, as is unfortunately the case in many inter-collegiate contests.

The Sweet Briar Athletic Association under the control of its student officers and an expert physical director, pursues as its ideal the full development of the school's advantageous environment by the establishment of model golf links, tennis courts, basket-ball courts and fields for general athletics and by the complete equipment of Sweet Briar Lake in swimming and boating accessories.

Already the College has nine good clay tennis courts, the first five holes of a definitely planned nine-hole link with splendid natural hazards, four out-door basket-ball courts and one in-door, well arranged fields and track, for running, jumping and field events, good hockey and lacrosse fields and a lake equipment of twelve row boats, boat and bath houses, beginner's swimming pen, and diving rafts for more accomplished swimmers. Much of the present equipment is entirely new, having been added by the Athletic Association during the past two years.

In the year just closed, the class of 1918 won the inter-class honors, producing the school's winning basket-ball and tennis teams; the class of 1919 winning the lake event on points while the individual lake cup went to a Sweet Briar Academy student.

The excellent results of the Sweet Briar system is shown by the establishment of three world's records for college girls by Sweet Briar students in the past five years. These records were established in the running broad jump, the 2½-foot, 100-yard hurdles, and in the hop, skip and jump.

Student interest in all forms of healthful exercise has steadily grown since the school's establishment, and the outlook for succeeding years is so bright as to warrant our belief that Sweet Briar will become widely famed for excellent and wisely conducted athletic exercise.

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

The lure of athletics, the demands of instructors, the glamour of the foot-lights and the countless other interests and activities that render college life both a pleasure and a strenuous undertaking, are only too prone to divert our attention from affairs of national and universal importance. To counteract this tendency, there was organized, through the suggestion of Miss Caroline Sparrow, head of the Department of History, a club called "Current Events" to which all college students are eligible. Meetings are thereby conducted that afford an opportunity for the give and take of information on interesting topics of the day by means of short addresses by the students and by general discussions. Lecturers from outside likewise address the club upon occasions and a series of inter-class debates held during the year help to develop class spirit and ability in public speaking as well as to cultivate an intelligent understanding of contemporaneous history.

An organization of great possibilities is this, and one which is as important to the student body as the interest and support of the student body is to it. Therefore lest you forget the wide, wide world outside, lest your sense of values become unbalanced, and the cost of food, the American foreign policy or Russian politics shrink in importance beside dramatic try-outs and May Queen elections, join the Current Events Club, attend faithfully the Tuesday night meetings in Room 21, Academic Building, and keep college routine from doing to your mind what perspective does to the railroad track.

RED CROSS

Of course you are interested in Red Cross, and just because you have come to college you are not going to forget your patriotic duty, so you'll join our Red Cross organization. This last Spring we sent a $50 box of bandages to Washington, and this year we are planning to send several. Then we joined a First Aid class and we learned what to do when our soldier boy is wounded. This year we shall do more active service and perhaps—if our enthusiasm runs high enough, we can send our long-dreamed of ambulance to the front. You will help us? You are indignant because we even asked you. You are with us through and through!

THE SWEET BRIAR MAGAZINE

The SWEET BRIAR MAGAZINE greets you! We want every girl who is now or who has ever been at Sweet Briar to feel that the magazine is her magazine. There are two ways to acquire that feeling. The first, that of subscribing to the magazine—you will all use, of course. It is of the second, that of writing for the magazine, that we wish especially to speak. Our magazine is of the college, for the college and by the college. That means you and you are every girl at Sweet Briar, new or old. We are looking for a lot of “new material” among the girls who are entering Sweet Briar this year, and we want you to feel that it is up to you to make the magazine a success.

The “old” girls will be interested to know that we are increasing the issues of the SWEET BRIAR MAGAZINE to six a year while the subscription price remains the same. We are very anxious to enlarge our “Alumnæ” department this year, and you can help us to do so by sending us any news you hear of the “old” girls.

THE BRIAR PATCH

If you have talked to an "old" girl, you have heard about our splendid annual, and you are brimming over with enthusiasm to see your face peering out from that great, big, jolly Freshman class and the Merry Jester or Rippler Dramatic Club, the basket-ball team and the magazine staff. You know you must wait until your Junior year to seek a position on the annual staff, but you will remember that this year's annual is edited by your sister class, and you will do all in your power by subscription, suggestion, and inventive talent to enable the class of '19 to put out the best annual ever.

THE DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION

Are you interested in dramatics? Have you ever taken part in amateur "stunts" of this kind? If you have or if you care to, while at college, try out for a chapter of "Paint and Patches," the Sweet Briar dramatic club. Anyone can belong to this organization by paying the annual membership fee of $1.50, which admits members to all the plays given by the Association throughout the year. But if you wish to take part in plays yourself, come prepared to make one of the three chapters of "Paint and Patches," the Merry Jesters, the Ripplers or the Wizzards (the academy chapter). An invitation to any chapter depends solely on dramatic ability, judged from "try-outs" held in the fall. But to remain a member of a chapter, it is necessary to keep up in your academic work, as well as to have dramatic ability. Any effort of yours to make good in the "try-outs" and in your studies will be more than repaid in the pleasure and experience of the work and play the Dramatic Association offers you.

THE SWEET BRIAR ENDOWMENT FUND

An appeal from an alumna who realizes that an endowment fund is a vital necessity to the future which we all hope Sweet Briar College will have, can not be put before the girls too strongly. When we realize how young our college is, that we are now completing only our tenth session, it seems all the more remarkable that we have succeeded in maintaining from the very beginning a position among the colleges of the first rank. This is the position we must keep. Sweet Briar, with her campus of three thousand acres, including a lake, and situated, as she is, in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, has wonderful possibilities. The only thing necessary to assure us that Sweet Briar will progress in equal measure with her sister colleges is an endowment fund.

Without this we are practically powerless. The mistaken idea that Sweet Briar is heavily endowed is very widespread. Indeed, she has the reputation of being a wealthy school, and many of her friends, as well as the girls themselves, will be surprised to learn that the only endowment fund which we have is about $12,000, raised in the last two years. The "old" girls have begun to understand that if we are ever to realize our ideas of the complete Sweet Briar, with a chapel, a science hall, an art building, a gymnasium, along with fountains and drives in addition to the present buildings, it must be due largely to the efforts of the girls themselves.

The college, as we know it, forms only one corner of the beautiful and imposing quadrangle which has been planned by the architects. Even before we can begin on these new buildings money is needed, actually needed, to enlarge the staff of instructors and to secure new equipment. There is a wonderful opportunity for some large-minded person who can see the possibilities of Sweet Briar, to do really creative work and to actually make the college. Our chief hope, however, lies in the girls themselves, for no one will be willing to help us until we prove that we are capable of helping ourselves, until we show that we have the welfare of our college so much at heart that we are willing to put forth strenuous efforts to make further progress possible. It is true that many of the girls who come here do not stay four years and graduate, and hence can not feel the intense loyalty of alumnæ toward their alma mater. However, even the girls who have been here as specials should realize that a college is really something to give to, that their tuition can never begin to repay Sweet Briar for all the good that they have received here; that it is their duty to do everything possible for Sweet Briar in return for the opportunities which she has afforded them. This should appeal especially to the alumnæ, for the very value of the degrees for which they have worked will depend on the future position of the college. The Class of 1913, followed by 1914 and 1915, set a splendid precedent in leaving as their class gift a sum of money to be added to the endowment fund, and it is probable that in the future the classes will follow this example.

Possibly some of the girls who read this article will really endeavor to do their share. They can do it in two ways: first, by bringing the subject to the notice of other girls, and, second, by raising money themselves and sending it to Mr. Wm. B. Dew, at Sweet Briar. At any rate, you are all urged to do your utmost in supporting the Old Girls' Association in the plans which they hope to carry out.

TELEGRAMS

All telegrams for Sweet Briar are telephoned from Amherst. Both the Western Union and the Postal have a direct telephone connection with the college.

MAILS

Mail is neither received nor sent off on Sunday.

There are three mails each week day. The bulk of the mail arrives about 8:30 A. M. and contains mails from all points, much of which has been put off at Lynchburg during the night and early morning. Only northern mail is sent off on this train.

The mail arriving about 8:50 A. M. consists of northern and western mail only. Only southern mail is sent on this train.

The mail arriving about 3:50 P. M. consists of northern, western, and eastern mail, and from points along the Atlantic Coast. Both northern and southern mail is sent off on this train. The mail for the north is put off at Lynchburg, and held until 5:26 and then put on a northbound train.

The Post Office is in the Administration Building, where one must go to buy stamps, register letters, secure money orders or send off packages by parcel post. Letters not registered and parcels not insured are delivered from the Linen Room by the College authorities. There is a charge of from ten to twenty-five cents for bringing packages from the station to the college. Letters, but no packages, may be placed in the receptacles in the dormitories, from which they are collected by the College authorities and taken to the Post Office. The Post Office is open from 7:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. Week days only.

PRACTICAL POINTERS

Students' rooms are furnished with beds, chiffoniers, tables, bookcases, chairs, and rugs and the usual amount of bedding. Each student should provide herself with her own towels, and an extra blanket. Couch covers, curtains, desk lamps, easy chairs, etc., are usually obtained from the Lynchburg stores.

Chafing dishes may be used at any time EXCEPT on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings between 7:30 and 10:00, and any night "after lights."

Jumpers and bloomers are used in the gymnastic drills, which each student is required to attend unless excused by the physician.

Bathing suits will be useful in the fall and spring.

Each student is expected to take one hour of exercise a day.

The Student Government Association of the College regulates observance of quiet hours. Lights go out at 10:30 P. M., at which time absolute quiet is required. The Academy has different regulations.

Trips of College students to Lynchburg are subject to the chaperonage rules of the Student Government Association.

Express lists are posted on the Gray bulletin boards at 12:00 M. and 4:00 P. M., when packages may be called for at the "Linen Room," on First Floor Gray.

Students who are ill or indisposed may have meals sent to their rooms at a charge of twenty-five cents. Orders for meals must be given to the waitress not later than twenty minutes after the "grace bell."

Orders at the Students' Bookshop are not honored until a deposit of $15.00 for the first semester has been made. An extra $5 stationery deposit is also customary.

“Pay Day” takes place soon after college opens, at which time every student pays the annual dues of the organization of which she has become a member. The annual fees are as follows:

Young Women's Christian Association	$1.00
Student Government Association	1.00
Athletic Association.....	5.00
Dramatic Association.....	1.50
Sweet Briar Magazine.....	1.50
Briar Patch.....	3.50
Current Events Club.....	.50

A fine for each day of delayed payment is added to the above.

The Treasurer's office is open from 8:30 to 1:25 each day except Sunday for the transaction of business with the students. Jewelry or other valuables may be left with him for safe keeping. Money may be deposited with him to be withdrawn as the student desires in sums not less than one dollar.

It is inadvisable to keep money in your room except in small amounts.

The Treasurer will also furnish information about railroad travel and schedules of trains.

When parents of the students visit the college, they may see the Treasurer in the afternoon.

When students arrive at the Sweet Briar Station they will find the Sweet Briar College omnibus at the south end of the building. The charge between the station and college is fifteen cents. You should give the driver your trunk check and 35 cents. He will attend to bringing it up.

Communications by telephone and telegram are made through "The Linen Room."

Horses for riding and driving may be obtained from the livery stable in Amherst.

Students should read carefully the printed rules to be found in the Library regarding the use of books. Violation of rules implies a loss of Library privileges or a fine.

Read the bulletin boards! Students are held responsible for official notices posted on the bulletins.

Our musical organizations consist of the Orchestra, the Glee Club, and the Choir.

Trials for Choir and the Glee Club are held during the first two weeks in the fall. Rehearsals for choir are held for an hour Friday evening and directly before the Sunday morning service.

Glee Club rehearsals are held Thursday evenings.

Those who wish to become members of the Orchestra should apply to the leader during the first few weeks of college.

The Chapel service affords us a few minutes each day for devotional thought. Remember that talking to your neighbor not only disturbs her, but jars upon a large number within sight or sound, and detracts greatly from the otherwise sacred atmosphere of the Chapel service.

Be sure to do some work in the Young Women's Christian Association. Each member is responsible for the success of the Association work.

Attend your class meetings, Association meetings, and song practices.

The first class meeting of the Freshman Class is called by the Junior President, who is then President pro tem of the Freshmen until the election of their officers after six week's tests.

Do not forget that you are a Freshman at Sweet Briar College and NOT an upper-classman at your preparatory school.

No Freshman may play on a "college team."

The Senior Study is for the use of the Seniors and their guests only.
The Junior Study for the Juniors.

"Good advice is beyond price."—Consult an upper-classman about the things you do not understand. She will be glad to help you.

Learn to keep account of the money you spend. Personal account books may be obtained from the chairman of the Publicity Committee.

Fire Drills are held for the purpose of teaching the students to go out of the buildings in a quick,

QUIET, and orderly fashion.

It is expected that the lower classmen voluntarily render certain courtesies to upper class girls. Be considerate of the rights that are justly theirs.

Remember to let Seniors pass in and out of doors first.

Remember that you represent
Sweet Briar on every occasion.
